

The Oxford Institute of Population Ageing

Hilary Term 2020 Seminar Series 'The Construction of Ageing'

Conveners:

Prof Sarah Harper, Dr Ashley Moyse, Prof Joshua Hordern

The following seminars will be presented at 4pm on Tuesdays in the Sir Michael Dummett Lecture Theatre, Christ Church

- 21 Jan: 'Bearing the burdens we (don't) bare: A theological reflection on carrying the weight of ageing'
Dr Ashley Moyse, Oxford
- 28 Jan: 'Sculpture, Dance, Choreography and What Age Brings'
Melissa Pierce Murray, sculptor; Fiona Millward, dancer
- 4 Feb: 'Memory, Meaning and Human Identity: The place of theology in constructing the purpose of age in the light of dementia?'
Professor James Woodward, Sarum College
- 11 Feb: 'The body as an ageing thing'
Dr Chris Gilleard, UCL
- 18 Feb: 'Monkey Glands and Moisturisers: Anti-ageing in Modern Britain'
Dr James Stark, Leeds
- 25 Feb: 'What can knowledge of History contribute to current understandings of ageing and old age?'
Professor Patricia M. Thane, KCL
- 3 March: 'Art, ageing and policy'
Stephen Bennett, London
- 10 March: 'Intersection of philosophy and ageing' (Lecture Room 2)
Dr Kate Kirkpatrick, KCL

For more information please see: <https://www.ageing.ox.ac.uk/events/>
<https://www.archub.ox.ac.uk/category/events/>

For queries please contact: administrator@ageing.ox.ac.uk